“ I have known Max since the Early 80's. We met as teenagers living in the same neighborhood. I will remember All the Fun times especially you playing Basketball, wrestling and you teaching me how to drive. Lord that was a time. Lol Well God saw that you were getting tired and he called you home. Take your Rest Maxie. You fought a Good Fight. My Prayers are With your Parents, Your Wife and Son and Extended Family. Rest well. I won't ever forget you.

“ Brother, rest in peace. I will remember and keep tightly the many great times we had in our youthful days in the many laughs, hanging out, playing basketball and jamming music. You are a great soul! God called you home to be in his kingdom. Many blessings to you and healing mercies to the Martin family. Love you brother!
