“ So often we loose touch with those we grew close to in our youth, forgetting that tomorrow according to God's words, is not promised to us. I express the deepest condolences from my family (the Smalls Family) and myself to the family, friends and those children Maxine counseled during her tenure. She will be missed, but her memory will live on in the hearts and minds of those who loved and were closest to her. I will forever remember her smile and her gentle spirit. We were classmates at Burke and church members at Morris Brown. There are lots of memories to hold dear. I pray that you, family and friends, be comforted in knowing Maxine is indeed present with the Lord. She completed her assignment and is now teaching with the angels. Love to all!

“ I cannot begin to remember a time that I could not speak to, e-mail, or visit by telephone with Maxine. She was always there when you needed her to be. Our friendship of more than fifty years will never be forgotten. She was a genuine person who loved her family, church, and classmates. I will miss her dearly!!!! Edwina Walker Lytes (The Class of 1967, Burke High, and our all mighty Aggies from NC A&T State University.) Rest In Peace my friend, you have earned your place in heaven!!!!

“ I had the honor of working with Maxine when the Charleston Area Justice Ministry was just beginning. Although I did not get to know her very well, I will always remember her warmth and her smile. I pray that her memory will always bring blessings to your family.

“ It was a pleasure knowing Maxine as she took such excellent care of her mother, bringing her to my office and sharing her concerns. She was always very upbeat and pleasant and a wonderful daughter. What a loss to her family and friends. I know the Lord will welcome her. She will be in my prayers daily.

“ Frasier family I share in your sorry as you mourn the passing of your beloved Maxine. Meeting Maxine at the wedding of my son (Avakian) to my now very special daughter (Monica), was a sheer delight. Maxine was warm, gracious and friendly, leaving a delightful and wonderful impression on me. Though I know that it is not easy saying goodbye, you have the assurance that you will be reunited in the hereafter. God has now chosen Maxine to enter the heavenly realm where no pain or sorrow exist. My prayer is that you find a bit of peace in knowing that a sovereign God is at the helm and firmly in control, his comfort is only a breath away. My love extends to each one of you.

“ Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. I am praying for your family Maxine was a beautiful women who was always helping people. She was always nice to me every time I saw here anywhere she teased me because I would forget who she was my sisters Sorority friend.

I am deeply grateful that we met were friends one time I saw her at Morris Brown AME Church we laughed and talk about several things.

I believe that if she could come back she would choose not to she is with the Heavenly Father getting her well deserved rest; so I say to Maxine's Family we all love her will miss her but God loves her best.

We all will see you one day in Heaven and shout the victory. Amen.

To Maxine daughter and Family you have my deepest sympathy and condolences.

“ The highest praise for a well-loved and lived life is "Thank You so very much."

You opened the doors for my twins, Arnette and Johnette Rose, to go to Upward Bound and sponsored them for the Debutante Affair. Indeed, your efforts put those "paper girls" from Burke HS on the map. The other traits you cemented into their foundation is proof that it does take a village to raise a child. You certainly made that phase of their education journey the talk-of-all-talk for their g-mom, Mrs Bessie (Gramps) Gadsden-Rahming. ((We just shared a Gramps moment Sunday before New Year's:: Upward Bound and the DC trip. You were mentioned.))

FAMILY: Rejoice in knowing that your daughter, sister, mother, grand-mom, and aunt remains a giant in our family. Her life was spent "adding value" to mankind.

To GOD be ALL glory for your life.
