“ I love and miss you dearly my big brother you are forever in my heart not one day goes by that I don't think about you I miss hearing your contagious laughter your silly jokes I just miss you all around my heart is still sad that you left thus void I pray that you're resting well

Joyce Crummey - May 12, 2025 at 06:00 PM

“ Uncle Mike man you hurt me with this one. As a child Uncle Mike was always like a father figure. He would take me and my brothers one at a time for a ride on the back of his motorcycle. He always told jokes. He was full of joy and laughter. He loved him some Lifesavers gummies the collision ones, and he lived in Walmart. It was one of his homes I swear lol. When I was about to go into the military Uncle Mike was my biggest fan cheering me on. He wanted his nieces and nephews to be great. He was so proud of me and he told me it. He said “Keep doing what you're doing and God will bless you. Love your Mother. Your a smart young man. Uncle Mike would pick me up for church on Sunday mornings no matter where I was, just send me the address, is all he would say. Uncle Mike I still look at your obituary in disbelief. But you earned your wings man you were truly the definition of a Man Of God in my eyes, and no one can take that away from you. Get your Rest Marvelous Mike man Uncle Mike I Love you forever 🙏🏾❤️

“ I took a walk today, I'm still not grasping that your not here, you were the go-to brother for all of us even on days we didn't get to talk or see each other just knowing you were there was enough and when we talked we would go on for hours, I am FOREVER SADDENED things will NEVER be the same without you here, I am angry, so angry so many questions linger.. DID YOU EVER KNOW YOU WERE MY HERO AND EVERYTHING I WOULD LIKE TO BE?! we had so much fun so much laughter, you would want me to understand this but I'm sorry I just can't, I'm sorry. With Love always your little brother.

It's been a rough couple months man, I would be calling u right about now, and u would marinate yourself in all of my concerns while holding in so much of your own concerns, bc you were more concerned about my situation getting better.

“ I worked with Mike for quite a few years at Nucor Steel and knew him as a good man that worked hard every day he was there. He loved his wife and family and his Lord. He was very proud of his children and he and I would swap stories about our kids often. I know he's gone but one thing I feel is for sure he's walking streets of gold and looking down. To Sherry and the children I'm very sorry for your loss. Jim Waldrop (big jim)

“ To Mrs. Ann Crummey and the entire Crummey Family, we send our deepest condolences to you. Micheal and I were classmates at Midland Park Elementary and I declare from those days until adulthood Micheal remained the same; a person who always had jokes but a man with a sincere heart. Micheal taught us all how to live and laugh. Scripture says, "He (God) heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds - Ps147:3. May God comfort you and keep you. - Christine C. Stembridge
