“ My sincere and heart-felt condolence to Paula's family. I will always remember her smile and sweet spirit. We were classmates from elementary school to high school. Our dads sometimes worked together as bricklayers. Whenever it rained, they couldn't work. I still remember the day it rained so hard and the streets around Rhett School were flooded. Paula said, "Come on! Get in." Mr. Pat packed a group of us into his car and delivered us to our homes. Some of us had to sit on each other's laps. Sometimes my dad would do the same on a rainy day. I remember our walks to the Charleston Museum on Fridays. We always stopped at the ice cream parlor on Rutledge Avenue. Now, she has joined so many of our classmates who have departed from this life as we know it. Rest in Peace my friend!
