“ Jesus assured his disciples of help and comfort, promising a home and a helper. He knew that dark days were awaiting him and his friends, but still he said, “Do not let your hearts be troubled.” Jesus encouraged them with the promises that he was going to prepare a place for them in heaven and that the Father would send the Holy Spirit to be their advocate and comforter. We have those same assurances today. The balm for troubled hearts is remembering that we have a place in heaven and accepting the comfort and guidance of the Holy Spirit, our helper and companion as we journey home. We pray that the Balm comforts Patricia Capers and Family. With much love, Sarah F. Geathers and Portia

“ All of us here at Hughes Lumber and Building Supply were saddened to hear of your loss. Leroy was in our store frequently and was always a kind man. He always had a smile on his face and was a pleasure to serve.
