“ *My head and soul still have not digested this loss yet. Raton was such a humble, gentle young man and always had manners toward me and the elders around him. I pray that Paulette, Layota and the family will continue to hold on to each other with God's Love and know he'll always be with them. Sleep in Heavenly Peace, Raton.
Love,*

Raton was this cute little kid .. I had not seen him since the 80s , he was brother to Carmen and Marie ,our next door neighbors on Harvey Ave, I remember his little kid voice laughing and talking ,about ,in the front yard when me and my cousins from New York would visit. Raton the man ,I'm sure is smiling down on us while he once again in playing in the front yard of Our heavenly fathers house in the skies.RIP
