“ Dana, My heartfelt condolences to you and the rest of your family. You are reflection of your mother's hard work while she was still present here in the physical sense. Being the loving woman, wife and mother that I know you to be, is proof that the apple does not fall far from the tree. Take pride in knowing that you will meet your mother one day if we follow the keep Jesus' spirit and his way of life as tools to live by. Jesus also give us strength in difference forms and you are fortunate that you were paired with Curtis. Together as a family will be your comfort during this special time. Sincerely and please take care, Pat Lee

“ To the Price and Fields Families, Our prayers are with you during this most difficult time. Proverbs 3:5-6 says, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your paths.” Aunt Rebecca was a woman of God who carried herself with a decorum that men and women should strive to emulate. I will always remember her as someone who displayed the qualities of a virtuous woman with a humble and gentle spirit. As you begin to navigate through this difficult time, please know that to be absent from the body is to be present with our Lord and Savior. May God Bless You and Keep You. To God be the Glory!

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. It is a comfort to know that death is not the end. The Bible promises a resurrection in the last day. John 5:28,29 reads; "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."
