“ I started working with Richard when I got out of college. Richard was probably the most experienced and talented caster in the entire plant, and I learned a great deal from him. He was one of my key mentors in the department. I'm so sorry ot hear of his passing, and my heart goes out to his family and friends. He was truly a great man!

“ I would like to express deepest sympathies to the Rivers family during their bereavement. Richard worked along with my husband, Bruce, at Alcoa and he had the deepest respect for him as a trusted friend. Please remember to trust in God during your darkest hour and He will provide the light to guide your path to lead the way. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

“ On behalf of all in our family, we wish to express our most sincere condolences to Richard's family and friends. We will keep him and you in our prayers. I came to know Richard, Isaac Burns and some of their friends through my father-in-law, Van Noy Thornhill, who Richard affectionately called "pops". Noy passed away last Easter Sunday, March 31. I used to enjoy chatting with Richard, Isaac and the guys who gathered at Richard's house. I once plowed a little garden for him in his yard. I'll miss him.....he was a good man.

“ To my friends and neighbors, My heart is sad at the passing of Richard. I worked with him for years at Alcoa and regardless of the time of day, he also had a big smile and a kind word. He did a great job with you boys, and my prayers are with you during this time. My condolences to all the family. Judy Jackson
