“ Robert was a good friend for 27 years through thick and thin. We shared a lot about our lives and families. He had malice against no one. I will miss him like a brother. God Bless in Jesus' name.

“ Robert was my neighbor and my friend. We had many chats about people and Charleston, which we had in common. He was very proud of his work at the Marriott, as well as his connection with some of the same people as me. He was a gentle soul who knew the Lord. I pray that the family will feel a warm glow surrounding them from God.
