

Mrs. Rosalee Mildred Moore Smith

July 27, 1932 - July 2, 2024

Mrs. Rosalee Mildred Moore Smith transitioned peacefully at her home in Charleston, South Carolina, on July 2, 2024. God granted her the gift of time. She lived a full and active life for 91 years. Her Celebration of Life will be on Saturday, July 27, 2024, at 11:00 a.m. at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1157 Sam Rittenberg Blvd., Charleston, SC.

Rosalee was a dedicated life member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority for over 65 years and Westminster Presbyterian Church for over 24 years. She was actively involved in philanthropic activities, including Presbyterian Woman, Presbyterian USA, Friends of the Library, and Hands of Christ.

Mrs. Smith was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Arthur B. Moore. She is survived by her daughter, Dr. Karen D. Smith, her son, Charles R. Smith Sr., and her sisters, Lois Moore Hillsman and Elizabeth Moore Mitchell Streeter, as well as numerous nephews and nieces who will never forget the love she brought to their lives.

In lieu of flowers, Karen and Charles kindly request that you make donations to the following charitable organizations: Black Caucus of the American Librarian Association, Friends of the Library, Charleston County Library – Cynthia Hurd location, and Hands of Christ.

“ To my entire MOORE'S FAMILY, Rosalie lived a full and complete life. She went HOME to be with the Lord surrounded by loving family members. We will surely miss her, but she has gained her wings and flown off to a better HOME! Let us REJOICE as we reminisce in LOVING TIMES that we have shared with her. I'm holding on to the promise that " EARTH HAS NO SORROW THAT HEAVEN CANNOT HEAL " ! Pray that some day you will meet again in that SWEET BYE AND BYE! LOVE " LIL' COUSIN IDA ! “ I remember Rosalee as a soft spoken, kind and self assured well dressed friend and educator. A very encouraging person with strong values. Always enjoyed our talks when she was a member of Zion Olivet. Will miss her smile. Rest in peace.
