“ I met Mrs. White the day my sister married her son Richard. She had her hair covered, and we couldn't tell her from her daughters! I was all of 12 years old at the time. I have had several opportunities to see Ms. Sadie over the years. She was always kind, and had such a peaceful spirit. The last time I saw her I had the opportunity to introduce her to my son, who was 5 months old at the time. She seemed to enjoy holding him, and I was glad to share a bit of sunshine with her that day! Rest in peace Ms. Sadie.

“ Althea, Jan, Thema and family, we are truly saddened by "Mama Sadie's" passing, but as believers, we know her soul is resting, having fought a good fight. Yet another beautiful flower in The Master's heavenly bouquet. What a Blessing for you all to have shared the joy of such a loving and devoted mother. And even now in these moments of grief, we pray each of you finds peace, joy and comfort in the many shared memories of your sweet, gentle and loving mother. Continue to lean on each other and your faith in God, as you move through this new reality, understanding and feeling always, His strength and comfort. And for each of you, in your own personal way, we pray you'll always feel the presence and tender kiss of your dear sweet mother. Blessings and love now and always. Frances "Mama Frances" Warren and son Craig P. Thompson.
