Hey peas eye your birthday is here coming soon it seems like it was just yesterday when I was looking up to my big brother OJ Singleton and as I reflect and think about all the great times growing up and looking up to you. Though you are gone to be with the Lord I find myself still looking up to you. I love you big brother thank you for all the great memories. Thank you for everything you passed on to me. I will always be proud and grateful having you as a big brother. With all my love. Your little brother. OJay II Michael
