“ We will miss Mr. Manigault so much. It always brightened our day to see him in the park and visit. He was a wonderful neighbor and friend and Hampden Court will not be the same with out him. Love to his family, Christina and Nic Butler (across the street, Hampden Ct.)

“ To the family, all of you have my condolence. Mr Manigault (or "Snookie" as known by all) was a good friend.. Any day of the week he would be at the park on the bench or sitting on Bossman front steps, just laughing or talking about old times, and they were good stories. He is at rest now and will be missed. Yvette Clark or as he called me "Bec". May his eternal rest with our Father be in peace.
