“ You may have left us physically, but you will always be in our hearts. I am honored to have known you, call you friend and care for your most precious possession; Apollo. I promise to take good care of him and love him till his last breath. He will get his trips to the beach, play tug and spoiled like he should be. On a personal note, I am mad at you for leaving. You had so much to offer and the world needs people like you. I love you woman, always have, always will. Save a spot for us and when you can, shine down on us to remind us of your beautiful presence. RIP

“ Good Morning
May the work she has done, speaks for her.
My Condolences to your family. I am so sorry for your loss.
At a time like this, all I can say is I'm sorry.
Personally speaking I see life as a Chance we are taking every moment of the day. Never knowing what's going to happen in the next moment of our lives. So, we have to stay Prayed Up awaiting Gods return calling our name given to us by God. When that roll was called, Shauntavia answered to her Godly Name.
Your daughter's Soul reach that AtOneNess with the Divine Power, reaching out touching Gods hands saying "I got it, I'm ready" and slip away peacefully in God's arms to her Heavenly Home with God.
I'm so Sorry, you have my Condolences...

“ Shauny and I were roommates freshman year at FMU! My girl you may be gone in the flesh but your spirit will live on through every life you touched. You were such a sweet and kind soul. We will miss you and cherish your spirit forever

“ I met Shauny in 2010 through mutual friends while we attended Francis Marion University. We instantly clicked over our love for hair, music, crafts, and everything in between. She became another sister to me, pouring words of encouragement into one another and being each others’ biggest cheerleaders whether near or far. It has been the honor of my life being part of her journey. The world has become a little more dim without her beautiful smile, her infectious laughter, and her overall amazing personality to fill it. Shauny, I love you so much. This is not goodbye; this is a see you later. Well done, my sister. Praying for Shauny’s family, friends, coworkers, students and everyone who loved her.
