“ The Lord’s charge and promise to Joshua apply to us as well: “Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go” (v. 9).

He is with us in every transition.

Father, I’m bringing You my trials and frustrations. You know each and every detail. Please comfort me as only You can, and provide exactly what I need for today. Help me give my unfulfilled expectations to You, trusting You’re working out a plan for me.

God remains faithful in every change.

My heart hurts before and since I heard of Her transition for the entire family. My favorite memories are our drive into work. Lois was chauffeuring Joyce and me, short trip, but lots of laughter. Lois was quiet, we were both good talkers., Beautiful Children, Grandchildren, Mother, Ms. Whitaker, Sister{BFF} Lois, Brother’, Nephews, Nieces and remaining extended family. She was a truly beautiful lady, never got the chance to have her teach me how to do Jewelry making. I will continue to be in Prayer for Yall in the times to come. I hope y’all sing "going up a yonder" tomorrow. I loved to hear the choir sing that, she was a part. Pastor’s Collins and the entire Shiloh Family, I know y’all will miss her. What a gift. Extending my Love and Prayers.

“ Tamara, After the tears, have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us. My condolences, Maxcina Gadsden
