“ I worked with Tamara at American Benefits Services here in Charleston. She was a doll and was always willing to help out each day. I'm sorry to see her in the paper but she made her presence known while here on earth. Condolences to her family, friends, and co-workers.

“ My condolences goes out to her family. She was a co-worker for several years and whenever she came back to SC, she would call or stop by my home. I will keep her family in my prayers and my God ever bless each of you.
