We have so many fond memories of Mrs. Taylor as a child at Cainhoy School. Lunch at the cafeteria was my "favorite time" of the day. She is a pillar in our community. A lady of beauty, elegance, class and grace. She will be missed, her legacy lives on and she will never be forgotten. Sincere and Heartfelt condolences to the family. Cliff and Karen Smith

Almost 65yrs ago I decided to drop out of school. Mrs Taylor sat me down one day, and not only encourage me, but convinced me to go back to school. I went on get a college degree, and I'm now a retired NYC Detective .I will always remember the important role that Mrs Taylor played in my life. My sincere condolences to the family.
