“ We give our deepest sympathies for all of you during your time of bereavement. I've heard so many beautiful things about Mrs. Ward from my mother and I'm sorry I didn't have the pleasure of meeting her. I'm extending condolences on behalf of my mom and my children, praying you are comforted in the loving arms of our Savior Jesus Christ and reminding you that Mrs. Ward is absent from the body but is present with the Lord. May God the Father be with you and you be with Him. God bless you all.
