“ Dear Keisa, Shawn, Miss Carrie (mama), Family,

I want to extend my deepest condolences to you and your family during this difficult time. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all. It is important to remember that God hears your cries and is always there for you, providing a source of strength and comfort.

If there is anything you need or any way that I can be of assistance, please do not hesitate to reach out. I am more than willing to help in any manner possible, whether it's running errands, offering a listening ear, or simply being there for support. You do not need to go through this alone, and I am committed to offering my support in any way you find helpful.

Losing a loved one is never easy, and the grieving process can be overwhelming. I hope that you can find some measure of peace and solace in the days ahead. Please know that you are in my thoughts, and I am here for you whenever you may need.

Once again, my deepest sympathies go out to you and your family during this time of loss.

With heartfelt condolences,

Robin Marion and family

“ With tears falling anyone who knows me knows Rev. Habersham was my GUY☐☐ IT HURTS TO KNOW HE HAS PASSED AWAY. He was a kind, generous and compassionate human being as well as PASTOR who was very soft spoken but wise. He gave me my first leadership role as Steward Pro Temp at High Hills Ame Church. He LOVED EVERYONE ESPECIALLY THE CHILDREN AND ELDERLY. IT hurts that I can't be at your HOMETOWN SERVICE TODAY. “You've got to answer to your name, Rev Habersham had to answer to his name” LOVE YOU SIR AND LOVE FOR THE FAMILY 💜💜💜💜 MARCELL WILEY

“ Family, I met Thom back at Osan AB, South Korea, 1994. We became good friends and kept in touch throughout the years (we were buddies). I was from Columbia, SC so we had that SC connection. My brother-in-law married a young lady (she's deceased) from Plantersville (Phyllis Green Jacobs). Thom and I would periodically talk which turned into a long conversation since we didn't talk that often, but we would laugh and reflect on life events and family. He is truly going to be missed. I wish I would have learned of his passing sooner.. I currently reside in Chesapeake, VA. Thom loved his family and would talk so much about his daughter, especially, when she was small. She was the love of his life. My prayers are with you all during this time of bereavement. Go Thom, take your rest, we all love you, but God, loves you best. David & Gail Hamilton of Chesapeake, VA by way of Columbia, SC.

My deepest condolences to the family of this great man. I served with Tom at Metro Tango in Germany in the late 80s, and he was a pleasure to work with. I remember when Hurricane Hugo hit and he had to take emergency leave to assist his family at home in SC. He is with the Lord now, where he belongs.
