“ My condolences to the Wright family in the loss of Bro. Tommy Wright. He was a very friendly, cordial, articulate, kind of person. He was a great member of Greater Zion AME Church and loved his community. He was very passionate about family and voice his concerns if needed.

He was a wonderful person to know, I grew up in the community as a teenager knowing him. Many times you see him with a gleam as he traveled up and down the highway. Or, you would see him around to Sis. Irene house. This takes me back to seeing him driving his old black small pickup truck. Always uttering words of wisdom and at work in the yard. We as a community has lost another kind family member and friend. Go on take your rest Bro. Tommy, we shall see you at the dawn of a new day in Christidom.
