“ It is at this appointed time, that I share my fond memories of Mother Vermell. She was a true warrior for God. She was a joy in my life and my children. She spoke the word that brought forth true wrath. She was true to God's word and to her followers. She is to be crowned as a good wife, sister, mother, grandma, aunt etc. She brought joy to her family and the community. Her wardrobe was that of elegance and clamour. Beauty as a rose as I will remember her toward me. The family will miss her and I will too. Through it all be encouraged. She has reached her holy destination.

Much love 💕.

“ I grew up down the street from Ms. Vermell. This is what she was called by my family growing up. I remember getting my hair pressed and curled for Easter Sunday Morning. I remember the dresses she made for me. In fact I still have one (even though it's too small). I remember all of the good times on our dead end street and the love that was shown by her and Mr. Sam. Family, continue to love one another and remember the good times. Love you, Rhette (Joan Prioleau)

Heartfelt Sympathy and Condolences to the Jaridau family. I was the babysitter at 9 yrs old. Mrs Jaridau made my prom gown. I remember it until today. If she didn't make that gown, no prom for me. I learned a lot from Mrs Vermell as we called her. Always giving sound advice. Truly a woman of wisdom, compassion, kindness, and courage.

Gone from this earth but never from my heart.

Our deepest condolences to the Jaridau Family from the Bailey and Henryhand Family. We have so many memories that we share over the years, from Mrs. Jaridau pressing and curling my hair, to babysitting us, to sharing the same church, to Mr. Jaridau making things for us in his wood shop, and much more. We love your family dearly. Take your rest Solider Jaridau in the army of the Lord, until we meet again.
