“ I met Mr. Campbell at a parent teacher conference and immediately fell in love with him because he came to see about his son. Mr. Campbell did not make excuses for his son, held his son accountable by demanding that his son be in a learning environment. I will always remember and cherish that meeting because I could see Mr. Campbell was a young father that loved his son and his mother. My sincere condolences to the entire family on the lost of your Angel. He will always live in your memories, heart, and Spirit.
