I'm just now getting this!! Wilbert and I attended the same church, New Testament Church of God in Brooklyn, NY, as kids!! Same Sunday school class, too!! My heart is saddened. 😞 He was a great man.

“ I worked alongside Mr. Williams for many years at Belle Hall. We shared a lot of laughs and many memories. He was a kind, caring, and gentle soul and I am so sorry to hear of his passing. I know his family will greatly miss him. May he rest in peace. I am sure he is smiling down on all of us from Heaven.

Wilbert Lee Williams and I may have only shared a short time together as husband and wife, but in that time we created something truly lasting—our son, Malik Williams.

Through Malik, your legacy continues to grow in such a beautiful way. You are the proud grandfather of three loving grandchildren—Na'Shira, Taniah, and TaJaun—who love you dearly. Even in your absence, they carry your name, your spirit, and a connection to you that will never fade.

Life didn't unfold the way we once may have imagined, but that doesn't take away from the bond we shared or the family we created. You will always be a part of that story.

*I hope you are at peace now.
You will be remembered, spoken of with love, and never forgotten.*

From me, and from all of us... rest peacefully.

You have been such an enlightening experience for my Angel by being someone who she admires and respects. She is 28 years old now and will never forget how you mentored and helped her with just navigating her life. You truly was a blessing to us and I'm proud that we worked together for many years in the CCSD schools together. You was family, and we will miss you. Sleep in peace Mr Williams. We also want to send our condolences, love, hugs, and prayers to the family of Mr Williams. Stay strong. God is with you all ❤️
