“ On the behalf of my co-workers and myself from the US Postal Service, our hearts and prayers go to the William W Wise family and surviving relatives. I actually did not know much about William. I remember his wonderful smile and greeting whenever I see him at work. Everyone in my plant enjoyed working with him and he would come Day day, “How are you?” I really miss seeing him at work. He was such a dedicated, kind, and diligent worker and always wanted to talk to pretty much anyone at work! Upon hearing his passing from his very close co-worker and friend, I was exceedingly shocked and saddened. As a father, we cannot grieve over william’s passing and we must accept the fact he no longer is with us. This, we have to move on. We should never forget about him. William would not want us to keep crying because of his tragic passing at age 50. We have to stay focused with our own families or stay focused with making a living! God bless everyone and Happy New Year. Take care!

“ William Wise was one of the strongest persons I have ever known.

I had the privilege of calling William, “Wise-O”, a friend of mine. William and I attended the same high school, but it was the time we spent together in college that made me aware of what an exceptional individual he was. Wise-O ‘s positive energy/presence was always felt when you were in a room with him. I remember numerous rowdy discussions among the “Charlestonians at Fort Valley State and in many cases, it was William that presented a different perspective that bridged differences or made people pause and rethink what they were saying. You will be missed my brother, for indeed you were a wise man.

To the family, know that the thoughts and prayers of my family are with you at this time of grief, and we offer the following as words of comfort “we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose” (Romans 8:28).

Rest in Peace William.

ME

“ "Wise O" was always a true friend!

He was no nonsense and straightforward at all times. "Wise O" let me know when I was wrong and out of line, but he did it in a way that was never demeaning.

Most importantly he was always there when I needed assistance even when I didn't see him or ask for assistance. "Wise O's" silent presence was impactful, his words were measured and always insightful.

He will be missed, but our shared faith has taught me that we will meet again.

Rest my Brother you have earned your place with our God!

Prayers and condolences to his family. Know that William is free of pain, sorrow, and worry.
