“ My condolences in the loss of your dear loved one. When our loved ones fall asleep in death, the pain of grief seems unbearable. Our loving God Jehovah understands how we feel and he comforts us by means of his word the Bible. Hosea 13:14 says: From the power of the grave I will redeem them. From death I will recover them. The scripture at Psalm 147:3 is also very comforting; He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. May these scriptures comfort you at this time of bereavement.

“ I met Yvonne when she started working @ Committee of Special Education in District 6. We worked together, all Yvonne ever wanted was to take care of her cat. We became very close, I treated her like my daughter, and she gave me the name MOTHER. I called her DAUGHTER. We talked a lot about home (Mt. Pleasant) because I also knew it well. We talked about her house and niece. We had good laughs. I was happy to hear when she became a supervisor . I remember her coming to visit me when she was working for the police department. Yvonne will be deeply missed

“ I worked with Yvonne in NYC at the Department of Ed and always enjoyed her Spunk not to mention her Love for her Cat(s), I'm sure there was more than 1! My Condolences to the Family, she was so much fun to be around, she will definitely be missed. May you share Your Spunk up in Heaven with the Angels and join your Loved Ones. Rest In Peace My Dear Friend!
